

INTERVIEWING IS A BIG DEAL! MAKE IT COUNT.

As an interviewer, there's a lot to accomplish. You need to learn about the candidate, share information about Avero and the position, and ultimately decide whether you can see the candidate as a future teammate. While you're at it, you need to show the candidate what we're all about, and create a great experience.

This guide is designed to help you make the most of each interview, and leave the candidate feeling excited about a career at Avero.

BEFORE THE INTERVIEW

Review the candidate's resume

Prepare questions to ask

Prepare information to share

Review "Dos & Don'ts"

Have your business card available

DURING THE INTERVIEW

INTRODUCTION

Welcome the candidate; thank him/her for coming in to interview. Introduce yourself; explain your role & your experience at Averro. Explain how the interview will be structured. For example, first you'll ask the candidate questions, then you'll share more information about the position. There should be opportunities for questions throughout to encourage an open dialogue, and explain if you'll be taking notes.

INTERVIEW DIALOGUE

Ask prepared questions regarding the candidate's experience. Seek to understand accomplishments, challenges, and skills gained at each company, while also understanding reasons for each jobmove/decision.

Ask 3-4 behavior based questions to assess ability to handle complex situations. Past behavior is the best predictor of future performance in similar situations. By asking questions about how candidates have handled situations in the past, you can gauge how they might perform in future situations.

Use open ended questions like "tell me more about that, what was that experience like, or provide me with some specific examples."

Provide an overview of the job function, how it relates to other departments, potential challenges, and growth/learning opportunities.

Solicit questions from the candidate and provide answers as appropriate, keeping confidentiality of sensitive proprietary information in mind.

WRAP-UP

Thank the candidate for their time and share your business card. Let the candidate know the HR team will be in touch regarding next steps. Give feedback to HR as soon as possible, within 24 hours. If multiple interviews, HR will setup a candidate debrief session to get all interviewer's feedback on candidate.

THE GENERAL FORMAT OF A BEHAVIORAL INTERVIEW QUESTION

SITUATION

Tell me about a time when...

ACTION

What happened?
What action did you take?

RESULT

What was the outcome?
What did you learn?

SAMPLE QUESTIONS TO ASK A CANDIDATE

TIME MANAGEMENT SKILLS

Describe a long-term project you managed. How did you keep everything moving along in a timely manner?
Tell me about a time when your responsibilities became overwhelming. What did you do?
Tell me about a time when you set a goal for yourself. How did you ensure that you would meet your objective?

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Tell me about a time when you successfully persuaded someone to see things your way at work.
Have you ever had to explain something complex to a frustrated client or leader, and how did you handle the situation? Tell me about a successful presentation you gave and why you think it was a hit.

CLIENT-FACING SKILLS

Describe a time when it was especially important to make a good impression on a client. How did you do so?
Tell me about a time when you didn't meet a client's expectations, and how you attempted to rectify the situation?
When you're working with a large number of clients, how do you go about prioritizing their needs?

MOTIVATION

Tell me about your proudest professional accomplishment.
Tell me about a time when you worked under close supervision or extremely loose supervision.
Tell me about a time when you were dissatisfied with your work. What could have been done to make it better?

TEAMWORK

Talk about a time when you had to work closely with someone whose personality was very different from yours.
Have you ever wished you'd handled a situation with a colleague differently?
Tell me about a time you needed to get information from someone who wasn't very responsive. What did you do?

AGILITY

Describe a time when your team or company was undergoing some change. How did that impact you, and how did you adapt?
Tell me about the first job you've ever had. What did you do to learn the ropes?
Tell me about a time you failed. How did you deal with this situation?

INTERVIEWING DOS & DON'TS

DON'T ASK:

Where did you grow up? • What do/did your parents do for a living? • Do you belong to a particular club or organization (with political, religious, or cultural affiliations)?

Where do you commute from? • Do you have children? • Do you have any illnesses that keep you away from work?

When do you plan to retire? • Do you plan to work after you have children?

INSTEAD, ASK:

How did you become interested in this field/industry? • Do you have any hobbies or interests that support your career success?

Are you available to work full time? • Are you available to travel (if applicable)? • Are you available to work overtime if needed?

What are your long term career goals? • How do you plan to achieve them? • Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

NOTES: